Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Robert Mizera and Wilhelmina Schaff exchanged their wedding vows on October 12, 1957, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Mandan, North Dakota, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, Robert and Wilhelmina gave life and love to ten children: Susan, Marie, Carol, Lila, Linda, Patricia, Becky, Robert, Jr., Bruce, and Kenneth, who in turn blessed them with eight grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Robert and Wilhelmina have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, Robert and Wilhelmina will celebrate their 50th Anniversary with all the good wishes, fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable occasions in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 12, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
